

Job Title

Technical PM

Company/Department

Location

Reports to

Type of position

Full-time Part-time Contractor Intern / Student

JOB DESCRIPTION

- Managing the product release cycle.
- Definition and documentation of detailed requirements and specifications for future releases.
- Writing product related documents: product specifications, release notes, product change notices, etc.
- Interfacing with customers and partners to understand the market requirements.
- Prioritizing product requirements and ensure timely and quality introduction of new features and releases.
- Acting as a technical liaison to external and internal partners.
- Performing market and competitive analysis.
- Supporting marketing and sales activities
- International travel (up to 15% of time)

WORK EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS

- At least 4 years of experience as a product manager, preferably in a software company.
- Experience working with enterprise customers, preferably in IT-related projects
- Experience in the development of complex software systems (preferably infrastructure experience)
- Experienced with writing product and functional specifications
- Good communications skills, assertive personality and ability to motivate people and achieve results in a matrix organization
- Team player, but with the ability to work independently with partners and customers
- Fluency in English. Both orally and in written form.

EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

- Relevant B.Sc. degree (preferably computer science); MBA – an advantage

Israel Product Management Association

Date posted

13/7/2010

Contact details

info@communitech.co.il