JOB DESCRIPTION

We are looking for a highly motivated product manager with a very good grasp of the internet world.

A sharp business mind is required to differentiate between a core feature and a nice to have one.

The product manager's position is all about understanding consumers that come from various demographic characteristics and being able to provide the best value for both users and company

You'll need to be a true leader that is able to get the most out of his team

An analytical mind is a necessity since we are driven by business goals - a lot of aspects of the product are constantly quantified and analyzed.

All in all it's a challenging position for a product manager - and being the right one, you can thrive in it.

WORK EXPERIENCE REQUIREMENTS

At least 3 years of Internet related experience (Product Management is a major plus)

A very good understanding of UI/GUI and relevant usability issues

Examples of previously related products where you played a major role in.

Product Roadmap and Product Life cycle management experience – a big plus.

EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

An Academic degree is a necessity but Autodidactism is highly appreciated as well
